I'm missing you so much
Maybe I haven't fallen out of love
But it's time to live kinda selfishly
Little by little I feed my need
This is what
I used to believe

Chorus:

I want you flesh
I want your money
And then to throw you away
It makes me happy
I want you flesh
I want your money
And then to throw you away
It makes me happy

Maybe it was meant to be this way
Step back take time to rearrange
However hard I try to kill
What we have and how I feel
There's no change
It always heals

Chorus:

I want you flesh
I want your money
And then to throw you away
It makes me happy
I want you flesh
I want your money
And then to throw you away
It makes me happy
And now I realize
What I am throwing away
A part of you and me
That I might never get back again

I can't promise you anything
But at least you know who I am
It's you and me against the world
And we'll take them on hand in hand

I want your love
I want you with me
Then to hold you close and make you happy
Want your love
I want you with me
Then to hold you close and make you happy
