Every now and then we need a bit of protection
Against all the bad things we call distraction
Synthetic shoes, synthetic glare
You know that plastic hearts don't tear, oh
I think I came in late
So excuse if I seem confused
When all the talk is just talk talk talk
You know were not amused
Staring at the holes that are in your room
You wont come out cause you know what's coming soon
It aint love anyway
It aint love anyway
It aint love anyway
Its just something that's over my head
Sometimes it feels like it goes on and on, on and on Sometimes it's real but it goes on and on, on and on
I can never win the game from you
Chorus
