Blue skies, fireflies, I've nothing to say to you
Big dreams, loose seams, I've nothing to say to you
There once was a time you were a good friend of mine
But the memory's blurred some days
But when I awake to the ice on the lake there is nothing to say
I've nothing to say to you
Fanfare, I don't care, I've nothing to say to you Hard time, cheap wine and nothing to say say to you
There once was a time you were a good friend of mine
And I always thought it'd say that way
But when I awake to the ice on the lake there is nothing
to say
I've nothing to say to you
Rolling hills and summer thrills, images all in blue
A life gone by, a timid sigh, a path made of what is true
But then somehow a hollow cloud covers what once was you...
Blue skies, fireflies, I've nothing to say to you
Fanfare, I do care that I've nothing to say to you
