Oh God.
It's been a while since I came to you.
And I admit it's foolish to wait
'Til now to talk things through.
Solitary confinement
... With no walls that i can see.
I can't help how i'm feeling.
A little help would go
A real long way with me.
Oh God ... living confusion.
Oh God give me relief.
Ever changing illusion.
Suck the life out of me.
Oh God.
How did it ever get this way?
My own contentment,
I took for granted only yesterday.
A tough situation
Has put an angle on my view.
I'd take care of it all myself,
But I know
That there is not much i can do.
I'd take care of it all myself ...
I'd take care of it all myself ...
