"Born To Be With You"

Starting here tonight,
There's nothing anybody can say.
Cause the hand of fate
Is pointing a finger my way.

It didn't take me a minute to see
I was looking at my destiny.
Something bigger than the two of us
Taking control.

I was born to be with you.
No shadow of a doubt
I'm feeling something new
That I can't live without.
It wasn't any accident, no.
Some things are heaven-sent.
And you were
Born to be with me.

When the time is right
Nothing anybody can do.
'Cause if it's in the cards
There's goin' to be a rendezvous.

Things happen that you can't explain.
They bring you pleasure or they bring you pain.
But ever since you came walking into my life
I know,

I was born to be with you.
There's no shadow of a doubt
I'm feeling something new
That I can't live without.
It wasn't any accident, no no.
Some things are heaven-sent.
And you were
Born to be with me.

I was born to be with you.
No shadow of a doubt
I'm feeling something new

That I can't live without.
It wasn't any accident, no.
Some things are heaven-sent.
You were
Born to be with me.

I was born to be with you.
There's no shadow of a doubt
I'm feeling something new
I just can't live without.

I was born to be with you. (I... Listen baby!)
I was born to be with you. (I was born... born to be with you.)
I was born to be with you... (fade)
