I've been long in need of you in my life,
I've been looking through the open doors,
And heaven knows how we could turn the other way,

Can you tell me why you let go?,
Can you tell me why you let go?,
When you know it's true,

There's a better life,
There's a better life,
And I know it's true,
There's a better life,
There's a better life,
And it makes me high,

I've been chasing things at everybody likes,
I've been hoping things will work out fine,
And I feel I'll never know,
How it feels to be alone,

Can you tell me why you let go?
Can you tell me why you let go?

There's a better life,
There's a better life,
And I know it's true,
There's a better life,
There's a better life,
And it makes me high,
And it makes me high,

Whoa - ah - oh's

Can you tell me why you let go?,
Can you tell me why you let go?,

Can you tell me why you let go?,
Ooh's

There's a better life,
There's a better life,
And it wait for you,

There's a better life,
There's a better life,
Ooh's
