As I walked down the road
I saw you from a mile away
My heart was beating so fast
Couldn't wait to say "Hey"

You say "You look very pretty today"
I went red my cheeks were all rosy
And it was cold it was freezing

All we did was talk about the weather
(You should have been raining down on me)
Wondering when it was gonna get better
(You could have had it so easily)
All we did was talk about the weather
(I can't believe that you cannot see)
That truthfully and honestly I couldn't care less
If the sun come out, or the rain comes down

I just wanna be in the same room
In the same town
(In the same town)

It seems every time the rain comes down
To me, it feels like the sun's out
I could be anywhere, or any place
The weather never seems to change
I see everything between the lines
I see right through, all your white lies
Tellin' me it's you who decides
If the sun is gonna shine

All we did was talk about the weather
(You should have been raining down on me)
Wondering when it was gonna get better
(You could have had it so easily)
All we did was talk about the weather
(I can't believe that you cannot see)
That truthfully and honestly I couldn't care less
If the sun come out, or the rain comes down

I just wanna be in the same room
In the same town

(In the same town)

Wait, please don't go
Don't insult my intelligence
I'm what you do and breathe
I'll breathe slow
Cause its mental
That I all I want to do
Is spend the night with you

All we did was talk about the weather
(You should have been raining down on me)
Wondering when it was gonna get better
(You could have had it so easily)
All we did was talk about the weather
(I can't believe that you cannot see)
That truthfully and honestly I couldn't care less
If the sun come out, or the rain comes down

I just wanna be in the same room
In the same town
(In the same town)
In the same town
In the same town
