First question I got is what happened to the g code, cause back in the days only pussy niggas the ones told, but now days the so-called killers that sell they soul, this snitchin shit dun diversified its young and old, err body telling now days niggas and hoes, the ones the streets called real is the ones that fold, them crackers put you in the empty you and make ya cold, and make you wait a couple hours before they open the door, and give you time to think about it before they come at ya throat, they ask you do you want to talk all ya gotta tell em is no, cause telling on yaself and on ya dog make you a hoe, if you a g then be a g and take it and go.
