Switch your pout and smile
Try not to think of this
As how I screwed it up
But how I only nearly missed

Someone tell me how
She can go and take
A no and turn it into
Yes I'll do it straight away

I love that glow
That colour red when you're angry
I love that glow
That colour blue when you're sad
I love that glow
That colour green with your envy
I love when your three colours black

There's one thing I've learnt
In my short days with you
That is not to mess
Around the way I used to do

Please accept my heart
It is my soul you feed
Let me try explain
Exactly just how much I feel

I love that glow
That colour red when you're angry
I love that glow
That colour blue when you're sad
I love that glow
That colour green with your envy
I love when your three colours black

You can close your eyes
But you cannot close your ears
No you cannot close your ears
But I want you to

Know you sit in popularity

In a world that holds you so
Close to every smile ever thought about
You oh you

I love that glow
That colour red when you're angry
I love that glow
That colour blue when you're sad
I love that glow
That colour green with your envy
I love when your three colours black
