

Plunja "Wilt"

Wilt like fowers in the rain
Drawn a picture about it in vain
Can't remember what's been said
Till the dawn it breaks and I'm dead

It's cold...

Walk the dream it's my only pain
Taught myself I've fallen unslain
Can't remember who I want
Hold, feel, say I can

It's cold...

Semi conscious thought
Take this pain that binds me
Something for you to know
Collapse of my heart, dislodge me

And I will learn...

Hold my hand up high as a I greet the sun
Mind body spirit forming one
Never ending story
Render execute it
I'm the one that can not handle your love

It's cold...
