People of Germany can you tell me
why your country is bleeding
and why your children must cry?
Why this oppression,
why all this hate?
You must do something now,
before it is to late.

We're kinsmen my brothers
of the same holy race,
we must realise that
and find to the ways.
The ways to Valhalla,
the ways that we've lost.
We must fight them again,
no matter the cost.

People of Germany
it's time to arise,
time to awake now
and leave all the lies.
Together in battle
for truth and for right,
together in battle
we stand and we fight.

Deutschland den Deutschen,
Ausl  nder raus!
Deutschland den Deutschen,
Ausl  nder raus!
Deutschland den Deutschen,
Ausl  nder raus!
Deutschland den Deutschen,
Ausl  nder raus!
