If you should ever go
Don't ever think I'd never miss you
If we should ever say goodbye
What makes you think that I'll survive
Even if you go
I will always be there for you
'Cause when I think of all your reasons why
It only brings tears to my eyes
Without you in my eyes...
I always find my mind is (deep inside)
Miles from anything
Without you in my life...
I am deep inside
Miles from anything
Everytime you cry
Why do I always feel like I let you
If we should ever fade away
How can you think I'd let it stay this way
You don't ever wonder
What this is the future has for me and you
Whenever you look into my eyes, baby
You should understand all inside
Without you in my life...
I always find my mind is
Miles from anything, baby
Without you in my life...
I am deep inside
Miles from anything
Anything
(miles and miles and miles and miles away)
(repeat X3)
Without you in my life...
I always find my mind is
Miles from anything
Without you in my life...
I am deep inside
Miles from anything
(miles and miles and miles and miles away)
(repeat and fade)
