Had this dream
I was lying on my back on a trampoline Floating by are the peaches and tangerines Tempting me but, baby I believe in planting seeds
And I believe that something beautiful's gonna to grow from me

Chorus:
Nothing to win and everything to lose Standing on the sidewalk my toes are tapping inside my shoes
He asked me when he asked me what, he asked me all about
Do you believe in God, do you believe in . . .

Call it strange or label it a lie, baby either way I've got a hand to hold and love to show for all of my days
What a scene she's jumping up and down on a trampoline

But she's only going to jump Gonna reach, gonna fly as high as her disbelief

Chorus

And I have found my high and I would rather not be anywhere but here
'Cause I am human just like you, but I'm afraid I'm just a stranger here

Chorus
