I really wanna tell you how I feel
Cause every time we touch is so unreal
Make you feel like the only girl in the world
But all she wanna do
She wants to move, she wants to move, she wants to move
She wants to move, she wants to move, she wants to
move
She wants to move, she wants to move, she wants to
move
She wants to move

I'm walking on air, I'm walking on air
I'm walking on air, I'm walking on air

I really wanna tell you how I feel
Cause every time we touch is so unreal
Make you feel like the only girl in the world
But all she wanna do
She wants to move, she wants to move, she wants to
move
She wants to move, she wants to move, she wants to
move
She wants to move, she wants to move, she wants to
move
She wants to move

And it makes me feel like
I'm walking on air, I'm walking on air
I'm walking on air, I'm walking on air
I'm walking on air

I'm walking on air, I'm walking on air
I'm walking on air, I'm walking on air
