So tonight everything's fine
Forget our troubles leave the world behind
There's only you and I wont be alone tonight.

Gave up trying for big success, it just wasn't meant to be
I'm looking for someone, who might be looking for me.
Your feeling good in your favorite dress,
While your trying to make it through
Just looking for someone, who might be looking for you.
We wont pretend that this is love,
The cover of a stranger is more than enough.

So tonight everything's fine
Forget our troubles leave the world behind
There's only you and I wont be alone tonight.

And we can dance were nice and close,
As if we've danced a thousand times.
While looking for something yeah,
We might not never find.
No no no no,
No end promises to keep,
We'll give each other just what we need.

So tonight everything's fine
Forget our troubles leave the world behind
There's only you and I wont be alone tonight.

Wont be alone oh oh tonight.
Wont be alone oh oh tonight.
Wont be alone tonight.

We wont pretend that this is love,
The cover of a stranger is more than enough.
So tonight everything's fine
Forget our troubles leave the world behind
There's only you and I wont be alone tonight.

So tonight, everything's fine

Forget our troubles leave the world behind
There's only you and I wont be alone tonight.

Oh oh oh
So tonight everything's fine
Forget our troubles leave the world behind
There's only you and I wont be alone tonight.

Yeah come one
Wont be alone tonight
No no no no, no no no no.
Wont be alone tonight
No no no no, no no no no.
