Now that you've been bought and sold you don't got time to fix the mess your in and if I may be so bold I bet you couldn't even do it again.

Lying like yesterday's paper just outside your door

Chorus:

Now you need me to clean your shoes walk on water be in the mood everybody's talking but nobody knows Where did the emporer get them new clothes

I always did look up to you

I tried to copy everything that you did until you broke my heart in two you shot me up and then you flipped your lid

Lying like yessterdays paper
just outside your door

Repeat Chorus
