Shit piled up to your knees
Her old man thinks
You're a social disease
Dog pissed on the floor left a stain
Your old lady's naggin'
Driving you insane
She stopped taking the pill
Then left you
Sued you for a mil
You've got your problems, boy
So damn great

Can't find a good wife
Can't find a good job
Can't find the keys to my car

I lost my dog
I lost my brain
I lost my girl to a big movie star (whatever)

Now I'm standing at the crossroads
Trying to find my way home
But the truth is baby I'm so
Lonely, lonely, lonely
Sometimes I'd

[Chorus]
Just like to jump in and
Get me some funky
When push comes to shove
You talk too much
And way too rough
How bout we both shut up and lets make love

I'm home hanging
The walls banging
It's the neighbors next door

They're talking trashy
Or doing the nasty
They keep me up until four

So they keep on going more and more
I hear and say
"Lord, I'm half crazy"

I gotta get me some of that
In and out, and in and out, and in and out !

[Chorus]

When the clothes start flying
There's no denying
Gonna get some funky
Good, good funky

Your blood starts pumping
Baby we're on to something
Here Oh right here, right here baby
All you did was give a little little bit of mine

It sounds so simple
I bring the ripple
What's your state of mind?

How bout we drink, get drunk
Fall down into a big flesh pie

[Chorus]

I said fly a plan, yes indeed
You be the flower, I'll be the seed
When Push comes to Shove

I said skip you lip and all the politics
Just both shut up and lets make love
It would sound like this...
Yeah-Stop
Alright
