And it's coming round to run away or disappear
And it's coming round to run away or disappear

Try climbing up those frozen stairs
I'm standing here, and nobody cares
They're all there and all they see is nothing new
'Cause nothing sparkles like it did when I knew you

Walk around, as usual
All alone, as usual
It's getting late, as usual
I can't go home

I just won't leave my little room
What's the point, they'll be wearing blue,
One man parade pull down my shades and lock the door
It's better blue for them to see, there to take the veil

Walk around, as usual
All alone, as usual
It's getting late, as usual
I can't go home, as usual

And it's coming round to run away or disappear
And it's coming round to run away or disappear

I can't find a sympathetic ear
Another day feels like another year
And we'll forget it, my world forgotten
And we'll forget it, my world forgotten, in a world forgetting

Walk around, as usual
All alone, as usual
It's getting late, as usual
I can't go home, as usual

Walk around, as usual
All alone, as usual
It's getting late, as usual

I can't go home, as usual

And it's coming round to run away or disappear
And it's coming round to run away or disappear
And it's coming round to run away or disappear
And it's coming round to run away or disappear...
