My soul floats, after death
But where is heaven now?!
No golden gates, between clouds
No angel-harp harmonies
Unconsciously i realize
The house of god stays hidden
They promised me eternal life
How could it be a lie?!
I feel the presents near me
Of thousand souls or more
I sence the desperation
Of souls all been betrayd
Drifting on the waves of sadness
Our souls seek eternal peace
There's only darkness on our way
Lost in the caverns of time
Where is the paradise promised for
How could i've been betrayed
Where is the place of eternal peace
Where are the golden gates
