What does your boyfriend look like
What does he talk about
Where does he go to work everyday
What kind of car does he drive
When he takes you to the movies
What do you go to see
And does he put his arm around you in the theatre
How does he kiss you goodnight
Well everything he does is right
Everything I've done is wrong
You don't even know me
Well I won't try to talk to you
Cause I don't have a thing to prove
And you'll always love him

What does your boyfriend look like
And how did you two meet
How long did it take you to know you loved him
How did you know it was him
When he went shoppin for your birthday
He knew just what to get
Then you threw you smiled and threw your arms around him
Tellin him that you loved him so much
Well everything he does is right
Everything I've done is wrong
You don't even know me
Well I won't try to talk to you
Cause I don't have a thing to prove
And you'll always love him
I wish that I could make you see
But I know you'll never notice me
And it's much to late
Your minds made up
It always has been
You'd never give a total stranger
The key to your fragile heart
Not long ago
He was the strange one
What was it about him
That made you allow him to be

A part of your life
Am I that worthless at a glance
Don't even get one single chance
And you will never know me
And you sure won't even love me
I hope he knows what he's got Cause I know I'll never get the chance to

What does your boyfriend look like
What does your boyfriend look like
Well everything he does is right
Everything I've done is wrong
You don't even know me
Well I won't try to talk to you
Cause I don't have a thing to prove
And you'll always love him
I wish that I could make you see
But I know you'll never notice me
And it's much to late
