Sole survivor, the guilt is setting in
The plane came crashing down
And I'm the only one who lived
A turbulent flight led you to this place and time
A one-way ticket to the end of your life

Black and blue angels who float through the aisle-ways
Smile at children who don't hear a word they say
Fasten your seat belts you're in for a bumpy ride
Please remain calm in the event of an emergency

You didn't deserve this cruel invitation
You didn't deserve this fucked up situation
I hope you had someone who loved you
I hope you had someone to love

We could blame it all on the moonlight
Is that good enough for you?
We could blame it all on the rising tides
Revenge of the ocean's blue
They'll blame it on you

I remember the little boy sitting next to me
Singing along without a care of this world
I hope he had someone who loved him
I hope he had someone to love

We could blame it all on the moonlight
Is that good enough for you?
We could blame it all on the rising tides
Revenge of the ocean's blue
They'll blame it on you

Come and fly the friendly skies
Oh, what a frightening way that would be to die
Come and fly the friendly skies
Oh, what a frightening way that would be to die

Flashbacks of photos of you on your last birthday
Blow out the candles they told you to wish away
Daydreams of dying, the airplanes came crashing down:

This is the day that you've always remembered now

You didn't believe in karma, did you?
I think that it believes in you

We could blame it all on the moonlight
Is that good enough for you?
We could blame it all on the rising tides
Revenge of the ocean's blue
They'll blame it on you

I walk among the burning twisted wreckage
Chocking the black smoke inside a fueled fire
A turbulent flight brought you to this place and time
A one-way ticket to the rest of my life

(for 5 minutes)
Satan! (looping for a 20 minutes)
