Call me a fake sir
You can call me a fraud
You can spit on my french knickers
You can call me a whore

If you roll in roll out roll up
To the bunny club
You'll have the ride of your life
Underneath these pink florescent lights
And I hope that you
Roll in roll out roll up
To the bunny club
You have the ride of your life
Underneath these pink florescent lights

And I hope that there's no love lost
There, no sir no love left in here
Just, oh, just wonder if there's no love lost

Knots in her hair and all lines
All lines are stripped bare
Just oh just wonder if There's no love lost

Finger my pigtails as you deal me some cards
As you tell me what the sunset looks like
From your brothers back yard
But you see with me they take one look and they run
I've got a dog and a gun and I'm living in London now
Living in London so

Roll in roll out roll up
To the bunny club
You'll have the ride of your life
Underneath these pink florescent lights
And I hope that you
Roll in roll out roll up
To the bunny club
You'll have the ride of you life
Underneath these pink fluorescent lights

And I hope that there's no love lost there

No sir there is no love left in here
Just oh just wonder if there's no love lost

Knots in her hair, and all lines
All lines stripped bare
Just oh just wonder if there's no love lost

Call me your princess as you do me a line
As your searching for my saviour
At the bottom of a pakcet of tobacco
They say at me they take one look and run
I've got a dog and a gun and I'm living in London now
Living in London so

Roll in roll out roll up
To the bunny club
You'll have the ride of your life
Underneath these pink florescent lights
And I hope that you
Roll in roll out roll up
To the bunny club
You'll have the ride of you life
Underneath these pink fluorescent lights

And I hope that there's not love loss there,
No sir there is no love left in here
Just oh just wonder if there's no love lost

Knots in her hair
And all eyes stripped bare
Just oh just wondering there's no love lost
You see with me they take one look and they run
And I've got a dog and a gun and I'm living in London
now
Living in London town
