I had a dream last night that felt so real
I woke myself up cryin'

With tears of joy cause you were still here
Even though in my mind I denied it

You hugged me just like you hugged me each night
Before God took you from me

At least now and then I get to hold you again
My angel in my dreams

Heaven must know how empty I am
Without you in my life

To send you down here to comfort my tears
To keep me from losing my mind

Just when I think that I'm on the brink of fallin'

Apart at the seams
I get a gift I know is heaven sent
My angel in my dreams

Heaven must know how empty I am
Without you in my life

To send you down here to comfort my tears
To keep me from losing my mind

Just when I think that I'm on the brink of fallin'
Apart at the seams
I get a gift I know is heaven sent
My angel in my dreams

I'll get a gift I know is heaven sent
My angel in my dreams
