I lay beside your body quietly
But I feel as restless as these bedroom sheets

I'm not talking in my sleep
I'm not promising to keep my secrets safe and warm
But something's swept inside me like this calm before the storm

CHORUS

If you sense anticipation
Show me where you're coming from
This is a one-way conversation
Talk To Me please
Talk To Me (yeah)

All the silence in the world don't bother you
My words weave in and out and slip right through

I stutter when I speak
It's impossible to keep these things from showing through
'Cause sometimes I don't want to disappear inside of you

CHORUS

If you sense anticipation
Show me where you're coming from
This is a one-way conversation
Talk To Me please
Talk To Me

(Talk To Me)
Show me where you're coming from
Don't close your eyes when my heart opens
Talk To Me please
Talk, Talk To Me

BRIDGE

I should've wakened you
I should've said I'm hurtin'
Instead of shaking when I'm feeling so uncertain
I should've locked the door

I should've shut the window
Instead of staying up and crying on my pillow

CHORUS

If you sense anticipation
Show me where you're coming from
This is a one-way conversation
Talk To Me, talk
Will you Talk To Me?

Talk To Me
Show me where you're coming from
This is a one-way conversation
Talk To Me...
Talk to...
Talk To Me

Ooh...
Show me where you're coming from
Don't close your eyes when my heart opens
Talk to me, talk
Talk To Me
