Should I reach for you do you want me to oh could I stretch my arms to your ...
well I rest my head
on a blue moon
and I hope I'll be there soon cause I must admit I'm city sick
there is no place I'd rather be but its hurting me so my heart says I should let go I will stay always warm well it's so easy to be greedy I have learnt
this before now
you can drink from me
you can eat from my body I wouldn't want to pull away cause I don't, I don't want more than you can give take your time
do as you please...
