Sweet butterfly, don't be afraid~its only the wind come to break you from this,
Your silvery crystal case~it' only a few months since we've seen you
As soon as you dry you'll be over my head, Flutter alongside a blue moon~lady crush the bird of time
Rise from the mud where ancient fishes wallow~sweet butterfly, don't pine on pain Four days until you petal~don't wither away with the worry Summertime I hear spring sing~you're so beautiful when you're happy Pattern your way, land with your wings~upright delicate like two lovers balancing Sweet heavenly velvet thing~in my gaze, see how my need comes to rape you Kissing you is like pressing my face up against freedom.....
