

Poor Righteous Teachers "So Many Teachers"

Visit "So Many Teachers" on MotoLyrics.com

Verse 1

[Wise]

So many teachers, yet so little men are being seen
Everybody's ruling, yet nobody's being king.

[Culture Freedom]

Word iz life 'G'

[Wise]

But Culture Free how could this be?

Our people need some leaders and some positivity.

[Culture Freedom]

Like Farrakhan 'G'

[Wise]

Or like that brother Malcolm X

Who turn the hands of time when giving knowledge of himself

[Culture Freedom & Wise]

It's sort ta simple see

[Wise]

The Father Shah upon the techniques

Weak... nobody in me posse

[Culture Freedom]

T'cha, T'cha! Please teach the untaught one

[Wise]

Strictly I be ghetto so you know it's from the heart

Strike for peace for peace which rightfully be mine

Disagree?

Then let the teacher take ya back in time

Once upon a time upon the earth

Many say we're cursed

But those who are black are that of first

Ever to exist upon the planet

Let me speak more candid

I'm here to give a greater understanding

Peace was the flow of the universe

So shut your bible stop tellin' lies that you were first

[Culture Freedom]

T'cha, T'cha! What about these students lackin' lessons

[Wise]

There's oh so many teachers, yet a lack of manifestin'

Teachers oughtta teach if they be teachers

Educate the weaker

Poor Righteous Teachers teachin' cuz we feel

So many teachers grab the mic and just be talkin'
So many lackin' cuzz these teachers ought'ta build.

[Instrumental break]

Verse 2

[Wise]

I am a teacher

Some what symbolic to a king

Some disagree when I state this

I where a crown

Which represents the knowledge of the teacher

Weaker speak of the snake

Which try to take this

Wisdom

Wise words being spoken

The purified ways in which I manifest

I'm never sested

Because the knowledge stimulates me

And brain cells are to great for havin' this

[Culture Freedom]

Well come again 'G'

[Wise]

Within an automatic second

I manifest thoughts that I accumulate

[Culture Freedom]

To demonstrate 'G'

[Wise]

Mainfest weight.

Weight of the insight

[Culture Freedom]

Light!

[Wise]

Right!... Some positivity

Why can't we

The black communities

Come together to conquer thee opponent

Cuzz if we show just a small sense of unity

Everything the eye see before me

We'd own it.

Truth be the wise words spoken

The I swings the sword

The Lord of all worlds being born

Word bond to the lost and the found

I down any clown

And on my crown that is sworn

Yes, the set consist of many teachers

Time for I to question what these teachers say they're teachin'

Who am I to question what another man is stating?

[Culture Freedom]

To who are you relating?
[Wise]
To you if you know not of what you're speaking.

[Instrumental break]

Verse 3
[Wise Intelligent]
So many teachers they taught me
I say they taught me well
They taught me to be self wise of one self.
I study what they teach me
No one could teach me how to
So you know I'm not takin' anything on face value.

[Culture Freedom]

Observation

[Wise Intelligent]

Mandatory... Whenever present
To study what is spoken by teacher manifested

[Culture Freedom]

Perception

[Wise Intelligent]

I say perceiving of a thought
Conceiving be delivering the weight of what one's taught.

It's sort'ta simple, some would say it's somewhat complicated

But LIFE IS OFTEN BALANCED BY THE WAY IN WHICH YA
TAKE IT!

Me fake it?!

Never 'G', The truth reveals itself

My understanding's understood

And mine will come from no one else

Make knowledge born the duty of the civilized

'G' not satisfied

Till the dark prince rise

[Culture Freedom]

Peace Wise, peace Wise

[Wise Intelligent]

But I'm not signing off yet

These teachers don't reveal so it's time to manifest

[Instrumental break]

Visit Poor Righteous Teachers page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.