Look, it's happened once again
It happens every now and then
Feeling the hurt and hating all the men
Ready to stop it all

That's when I need a friendly face
To see me through these lonely days
Just to put some sunshine in my place
Don't take too long I need you

REFRAIN:

Here I am
I haven't gone that far away
And since I am
That kind of friend you know
Would stay with you through all the pain
Never to leave you in the rain
Ready to listen to what you've been through Your woes and blues and share each other's

CHORUS:

Points of view
We've been there once before
And kept our points of view
It doesn't really matter if they're never quite the same
We have our rules in different ways
We play the games of different folks with different strokes
And keep our points of view

See the world seems bright again
It only darkens now and then
Most of the time there's just no telling when Look up and see you've got me

REFRAIN:

Here we are
We may have gone our different ways
But since we are
The kind of friends who'll always stay
No matter what the pain
Learning to love that cap o rain

Ready to say we're here to stay in every way
Although we'e got our different...

CHORUS:

Points of view

We've been there once before

And kept our points of view

It doesn't really matter if they're never quite the same

We have our rules in different ways

We play the games of different folks with different
strokes

And keep our points of view

Points of view

We've been there once before
