When I found out it was real
Oh I couldn't say I'm sure
Can I please tell you how I feel
I never used the words before
They don't come tumbling down on me
I have to watch them carefully

And I thought I was secure
The moment I fell down
I have no issues anymore
No need to look around
To find some safe and solid space
Somewhere to spend my days, well

Nothing in this world could make me move the way you do
And yet there's nothing I would rather choose to do

And I used to be alone
And I didn't mind at all
I used to know where I belong
How could I ever ask for more
Then you came tumbling down on me
You showed me things I'd never seen

Now you tell me where you've been
You said you've left some things behind
I guess you're doing what you need
Wish I could say that I don't mind
But that's the only thing I do
I think you know that too, cause

Nothing in this world could make me move the way you
do
I tell you, every little move I make is due to you
I move to pieces

Nothing in this world can make me move the way you
do
And yet there's nothing I would rather choose to do

And though you see what's wrong with me
You told me too there's nothing I can do
I know you're right
I know it's true

I'll find some safe and solid space
Somewhere to spend my days, cause

Nothing in this world could make me move the way you
do
I tell you, every little move I make is due to you
I move to pieces

Nothing in this world can make me move the way you
do
And yet there's nothing I would rather choose to do
