I like to think of here as Sandy
I'd tell you why if I was sure
Could be here perfume's softly senting
Could be those dresses that she wore

Sandy, won't you walk me to the water
Like I find me, watch me fall asleep
Wake me up and tell me I'm not dreaming
Sandy, won't you walk me to the sea

I used to see her through the small school
Licarouse and all around
Let's keep telling high above us
I never had the pad to bring them down

Every time I close my eyes she's with me
Standing there and smiling in the rain

Sandy, there are things I want to tell you
I only need a lifetime to explain

Sandy, won't you walk me to the water
Like I find me, watch me fall asleep
Wake me up and tell me I'm not dreaming
Sandy, won't you walk me to the sea

Every time I close my eyes she's with me
Standing there and smiling in the rain
Sandy, there are things I want to tell you
I only need a lifetime to explain

See me, won't you see me
I'm lost and alone
