I see trouble on my way
Deepest dungeons
Far away from my home
I tell you I'm in danger
I tell you evil will arise

Take me, hold me, show me
Some bonus points, some golden coins
I need an extralife
I need an extralife

Jumpin', runnin' through an unreal land
Hiding, firing
I can't stand them
All alone
So all alone
I tell you I'm in danger
I tell you evil will arise

Take me, hold me, show me
Some bonus points, some golden coins
I need an extralife
I need an extralife
