First I stand then I crawl I became all mankind as I drip From mine eyes I washed away to a smaller size we'll wait
One-thousand years until the end of time we'll wait one-Thousand more dressed up in gold and white we'll climb
The mountain sides to find what's in the sky we'll dig Through mountain sides to find what's deep inside if we See what we need we'll find it don't make who we be if
Try would we find that what we need is more than time We'll wait one-thousand years until the end of time we'll Wait one-thousand more dressed up in gold and white
we'll
Climb the mountain sides to find what's in the sky we'll Dig through mountain sides to find what's deep inside I've got everything you need the friends you help need Everything what you need what you need? you can help out
All your friends in need but the friends you help need Everything what you need what you need first you stand
Then you crawl then you stand to be reborn we'll wait
One-thousand years until the end of time we'll wait one-Thousand more dressed up in gold and white we'll
The mountain sides to find what's in the sky we'll dig Through mountain sides to find what's deep inside you can Help out all your friends in need but the friends you Help need everything what you need what you need I've got Everything you need the friends you help need everything
What you need what you need?
