

Portugal. The Man "Terrorized"

Only flying over Bledsoe
Do I feel safe enough to lie
Never wanna fall from flight
I'm terrorized
Terrorized

Because you are the only one
Who ever left the morning stunned
Because you are the crowning glory

Fortunate are the few
Who pay for the premium
But how're you gonna get that through
What's left of your cranium?

Roll out the charts
Insert the darts slowly
How's it gonna taste alone?
Eyes wide in mock surprise
Terrorized, terrorized

Every time has it's turn
Every taillight must burn
Every wound must be cleansed
Every trespass is sensed
Never wanna know for sure
I never wanna know for sure
My heart is your prize
Terrorized, terrorized.
