Will you ever ease your mind?
Will you ever ease your mind?
Will you ever wake to find your burden less?
Will you ever please your mind?
Will you ever please your mind?
Will you ever see a sign that tells you:
"This is the direction"
Now that your perception's finally clearing up?

Will you ever show your face?
Will you ever show your face?
Will you ever speak and not feel out of place?
Will you ever brave the brine?
Will you ever brave the brine?
Will you ever find the time you're missing
Out on what you wanted,
Frustration flaunted in your gentle face?

I'm sorry that the simplest things are hard to understand
Aurora borealis has been waiting in your hand
Waiting for a plan
Waiting for a beautiful escape
Escape...

You may never ease your mind
You may never ease your mind
But you will never cease to find me still around (Overlapping vocals here to fade) Will you ever ease
your mind?
Will you ever ease your mind?
Will you ever ease your mind?
Will you ever ease your mind?
Will you ever ease your mind?
Will you ever ease your mind?
Will you ever ease your mind?
Will you ever ease your mind?
Will you ever ease your mind?
Will you ever ease your mind?
Will you ever ease your mind?
