[Knightowl (Talkin)]

Hollow Point's back

Comin at em

That's right

[Mr. Lil One]

Now won't you come and haunt

Take my from the world

What about my wife and

And my little baby girl

Think I'm bein selvish

Better yet I am

I'm runnin like a coward

I should face it like man

I got this paranoia

Fuck with me daily

I got this paranoia

That the law gladly gave me

Got mixed emotions

Runnin through my dome

A wife and a kid

Can't say that I'm alone

Still there's some thing wrong

Some thing about the song

They way I hear the beat kick

Makes me wanna think

Sit and reminisce

Drink more and fuckin think

Think about the bad times

Think about the good times

Think about my mother

And why the fuck I lost mine

I guess when your number's up

You're through

And then you see another side

That you never knew

But still you got to fight

Or other wise you're through

[Chrorus: Mr. Lil One]

When you're fuckin with The Little

Then you're fuckin with the best
I only think about me mothafuck the rest

When you're fuckin with The Little
Then you better where your vest
Or you'll get a fuckin hole
Stranded dead up in your chest

When you're fuckin with The Little
Then you're fuckin with the best
I only think about me mothafuck the rest

When you're fuckin with The Little
Then you better where your vest
Then you're fuckin your death

[Knightowl]

Mothafuckas talk alot
That why they gotta drop alot
The Knightowl gotta stalk alot
Fools I fuck em alot
They always gotta ride and hide
But I've been watchin every stride
Perfect situation for another homicide
Don't double cross me fool
You haven't lost me yet
I'm standin right behind you
With a shank to go inside
To rip your fuckin skin
As you feel when it goes in
I love commitin krimes
And Little loves commitin sin
Hollow Point's the dou
That'll take you mothafuckas
On a journey
It's bitches like you that belong in
On a journey
You better keep your mouth closed
Or land up in a box
I'm the one that'll take your breath
You fucked around with death
So listen never try me
Complements of my krimey
Bullets do the dome
That'll take you right to the land of the unknown
I'm livin life un-holy
Some what like a parole
You best not give me shit or die
Fool if you don't know me

[Chorus 2: Knightowl]

When you're fuckin with The Knightowl
Then you're fuckin with the best
I only think about me mothafuck the rest

When you're fuckin with The Knightowl
Then you better where your vest
Or get a fuckin hole
Stranded dead up in your chest

When you're fuckin with The Knightowl
Then you're fuckin with the best
I only think about me mothafuck the rest

When you're fuckin with The Knightowl
Then you better where your vest
Then you're fuckin your death

[Mr. Lil One]

Well now I'm 25 and glad to be alive
Livin with the sin that I got buried up inside
I met many people
And many of them were lethal
And let me guarentee you
In your life there'll be a sequel
We're born with 1 face
But always see another
These mothafuckas bull shit
And keep it under cover
Talk behind your back
And say they love you rap
And when you turn around
They say that mothafuckas wack
But I got the DL
On every single one of you
Better belive I'll be there
Standing right infront of you
None of you can see me
None of you can be me
Even get respect from the ghosts
And the demons

[Chorus: Mr. Lil One]
