

Post Break Tragedy "The Greatest Liars Truly Believe"

I am an Artist, I am the thief that's never caught.
And I am a Liar, because the truth never gets bought Paint by the numbers, build this up just to tear it down
This masterpiece is a facade, this masterpiece is a sick plot.
So calculated... Controlled.

The greatest liars are the ones you love the most,
Worry not of enemies when you have your friends so
very close

I can feel it coming, everyone please hold your breath
For my next emotion will be my best performance yet.
Did you believe it, even for one second, I know you did.
The trick is acting so sincere even when you know it's not.
So calculated... Controlled.

The greatest liars are the ones you love the most,
Worry not of enemies when you have your friends so
very close

The greatest liars truly believe.
