If U do the best that you do
Some try to confiscate from you But them can't chant Overrule what we do, that's why

Chorus

If U achieve for what you strive Now that the doors are open wide Some fall apart, some criticize Some fall apart, some want your life

See black music edutainment for the whole earth
We blend styles that'll burst in ya ears when heard Let the starsearch settle down witness the birth Adolescence we breathe this but grew ours first
When we came out we were like; yo who got hurt
The first shots were politically right, you've been served
Now it's a whole new beginning kid revival of street Da revolution out to greet the world we're playing for keeps
The industry nailed reveal our feel the cornerstone got refused
But he rebuilt, see life ain't that though, it's up to you and what you make out of it.
It's funny how the world needs money to be proud of it.
Any day can be worst times happen in life
Let the mind spark brightness life is rightfully mines.
Observe crooks how they thirst for crime, we all sin, but it's fallin' and walkin' again.

Chorus

To all the venues where they light blue leaves and where the sticks crash cymbals and it's grown to reap.
We ain't here to keep we still wanna leave before burnt out turned out y'all done it for me.
Firmed out the phone red hot pick spots they blown nations pride the same guy before he got known Stakes high now they grow out supply, it took time look mine is beyond blessed kid it never took crime Bit the lessons out of life I pressed stop to rewind to remind me of the days the purple haze dazed minds The brave ones came out and paved ways out of slums it took a miracle to share our bread out of spare crumbs

Chorus

After my old life aborted been nominated rewarded for the dreams compiled styles that I updated hated for origin, doubted in position My motto is: no men above us in this life we're livin' Follow my instinct my musical level extends more than the norm
No way tomorrow finish stuff before the day ends All in acknowledge yourself as grown men, stand in line in front of the door. One day we all roll in.

Chorus 2x
