Now that he has gone I remember
The words he used to whisper so tender
The words he tried, forever and ever
Forever and ever, for always together
All the things I tried didn't help me
And still I hear his voice deep inside me
But now I know there is only music that can help me forget the time we had

Let me dance tonight, dance tonight
So that I can dream that he's still by my side, by my side
Let me dance tonight, dance tonight
So that I won't feel so lonely

In the dark I see only shadows
That move and sway like colours of rainbows
But it must be my imagination
Or hallucinations with disco vibrations

So the link that stops all the pain
And in my heart I feel like it's raining
But I don't want them to stop this music
'cause I wanna hear it until the end

Let me dance tonight, dance tonight
So that I can dream that he's still by my side, by my
side
Let me dance tonight, dance tonight
So that I won't feel so lonely

Let me dance tonight, dance tonight
So that I can dream that he's still by side, by my side
Let me dance tonight, dance tonight
So that I won't feel so lonely.
