Verse:

Where are you now
You left and Im gone
And youre here to face the jukebox alone
Baby,
Youre lacking oxygen to your brain
I cant find anyone else to blame but your stupid games

My dear, this is Elementary
Stuck in a reality show
I think Im saved by the bell
And you must be ashton cuz I feel punkd

So youre tangled up in thoughts
When you found this to be clich
And youre here spinning in circles confused
Baby,
I think theres must be something wrong with your head

Chorus:

My dear, this is Elementary
Stuck in a reality show
I think Im saved by the bell
And you must be ashton cuz I feel punkd

And youre here to face the jukebox alone
