"Gateway To The Starlight Kingdom"

Visit "Gateway To The Starlight Kingdom" on MotoLyrics.com

I hear no sound, the voices around
My eyes can still see, but nothing I feel
Floating in the tunnels of myself

Time has no boundaries
Outside this blinding cage
Memories of past and future
All have their presence

My body is driven by its subconscious
My heart is still beating, a nature's machine
Pounding blood through its veins
While I'm searching for worlds unseen

And then like in a painful birth
Like so many times before
The cold world,
Kills my starlight kingdom

I went as far as to another world
I went so deep, that hit the surface
A damned journey
A circle of deception
I don't expect you to go my way
Beneath the sun you wait and prey
