Into the distance - far from anywhere
I looked into a fairytale, a place of pleasure
The child inside me 'still hungry for the day

A late encounter - I foresee the memories that will appear

I can't believe it's over
I can't believe it's just a dream
Your life is freezing halfway
You have to learn to be a man

I'm damned to be much older than I feel
And realize the childhood that I leave
Out of my window - a glimpse of what I ?ve been

Somehow they killed the boy I used to be

One magic moment fills my heart with greed Light in the darkness - see me playing on the fields of summer
I left my childhood sooner than I wanted to
I can't rewind it and I can't live forever and a day

I can't believe it's over
I can't believe it's just a dream
Your life is freezing halfway
You have to learn to be a man
I can't rewind - stop looking back!
Nothing remains.....
