Master of mind keep me away from the line
Master of mind keep me away from the crime
I follow your signs when I fear that I have to decide

He takes my hand 'teaching me how to pretend
Always a friend trust in his words till the end
Lead me to heaven I'll do what you want me to do

Fear in my head - dust in my eys

I feel your intention in times of the night
It's the strenght that can force to obey
Before I rely on the power you have
I'll be gone

Play with my soul - always inside
Defy my religion - a slave to the mind
It's the fear of the use of your might
But how can offer resistance to you in my head ?
