You ! - Can I hide behind your face ?
And I won't appear as I am
Through the coldness in your eyes
I was too shy to speak my name
When I saw the endless crowd.....

You wear that uniform again
Though I don't agree - let me in
I was naked in the light
So I refuse to be open - no !

If this world is a fair place
We don't let it show
People hurt each other
Everywhere I go
Exposure as a pastime
This is when I frown

Easy to get under
Won't you do it again - to me again ?

You cannot hide behind my face
Because a leaf has covered my skin
And no-one is unfaltering
But we don't know how to show

If this world is a fair place
We don't let it show
People hurt each other
Everywhere I go
If this world is a diamond
We must let it shine
A gift from one to another
Won't you do it again - to me again
