Just when did I decide you
And I how did I arrive at truth
Love's a very deadly thing
Swims and fills my viens with a dread
While I'm strapped to your bed
Your the banquet for desire
I wish the man of nine files my bliss

Seduction rides the wings of dragonflies
Blinding softly right before my eyes
Blinding softly

Took my good eye off the door
Slipped and let my clothes fall to the floor, too quick
There were no riddles in your moves
Flown like a silk of wicked webs
I've fall into again

Seduction rides the wings of dragonflies
Blinding softly right before my eyes
Seduction rides the wings of dragonflies
Blinding softly

Just when did I decide you
And I how did I arrive at truth
Lust's a very deadly thing
Flows like a silk of wicked webs
I've fell into again

Seduction rides the wings of dragonflies
Blinding softly right before my eyes
Seduction rides the wings of dragonflies
Blinding softly

I've fell into again (softly)
