I will be toast on your holy fire
don?t let me go Come to my chest and we won?t remember the things we know

Are you sure that you know everything
Do you know everything about me?

I might with you pretend I?m blind but I would like to tie you down to something so you won?t leave, so I can breathe

Forever is never. Sustain for tomorrow.
We?ll pretend.
I won?t come to my senses,
thought I had caught your remembrance about the end.

But are you sure that you know everything.
Do you know everything about me?

I might with you, pretend that I am blind but I would like to tie you down or something So you won?t leave. So I can breathe
