Hold just wait one minute now to
Find a reason for these orders
Please let me protect thee from the other side
What's inside The Wall the images the painted feelings
I must show
Laugh at what I try to preach to shed the grievance
Laugh at what I know you'll be the first to go
Now let one inside of you and
Let the feelings come from inside
Soon they'll call me Angels calling
They're singing in tune
I watched as my mother cried all of this time
Her vicious fight with the world
That she can't seem to we can't seem to win
And all this time we have fought
With ourselves and we can't seem to win

My words must shed the sunlight on The Naked Mind
Born inside a womb
Grow to rape the environment
So sad that it's true
The young so pure as a child
So was it all in everything that we have done?
Divide the boundary walls
Let the freedom breed inside of two
Minds that cry
It sounds like listen to these words I
Lay upon the naked mind
Now let one inside of you and
Let the feelings come from inside
Soon they'll call me Angels calling
They're singing in tune
[Repeat chorus]
Now all I feel is nothing but you
For the last time they will mock the truth
[Repeat chorus]
