"The End Is Over"

Slip back slip back in time
Before everything was gone
Did you converse with the universe
And let them know that they were wrong
It's all over, it's all over
So lets do it again
-It's all over, the end is over
So lets do it again and again and again
Took the kill and it won't take long
I'll take the only thing that's left
Set it up cause it's all enough
To put the endless soul to rest
(Chorus)
-there's a chance to leave forever
There's a chance to go for good
There's a chance of the souls of those left behind
Are the souls of those who should (Chorus x2)
