Once you were crew, but no your minds so weak. Can't tell the truth. all that sniffin' made you tweak. Yo just once can you look me in the eye. What happens to friends? can you tell me why. That shit got in the way of everything we had. Cuttin you lose made me so damm sad. But look at you, your life is a wreck. You should have kept your shit in check. I waited for you but you were never there. I guess you never even fuckin cared. Remember all the good times that we shared, and look at you your life's a wreck. You should of kept your shit in check!!!! In check! In check! Kept your shit in check!
