When the shit comes down on you and you don't know where to turn, Remember who your friends are, and they'll make sure you won't get burned. Confide in them and keep their trust. You always have to be sincere. Give respect just like you want, and your boys will be right there. Cause when you face the facts, your friends are your family, and when you take a look this is who you're gonna see. Who? POWERHOUSE! (X3) Got your back!!! Powerhouse has got my back. And you know that I got theirs, and if the muthafuckers want to scrap then they better be real sure. Mess with the bull ... man you know your gonna get the horns. After the blood has spilled, and the chumps have thrown you, know there won't be a shadow of a doubt, crew still standing is called powerhouse!!! Who? POWERHOUSE! (X3) Got your back.
