say what?
a guitar playing rapper?
ahhh man! Yea!

(Chorus)
they say I'm east coast mixed in with the west coast mixed with a little bit of north though gotta bring it back down south though yea they say I'm east coast
gotta bring it back down south though (yea) and I've been doing this a while
so you can't tell me nothing
the radio is playing us
and you just got to bump it I've been doing this a while
the radio is playing us
and you just got to bump it (yea)

(Verse 1)
ever since I was a child I've been one with many styles Reggie J was first but now it's Pradigy or Pradical enfluences spread for miles from New York to Cali style got my roots in county blues cause I got dirty southern style as for lyrics ya'll should fear it ain't not Hov but behold the spirit race over the track I was born to steer it even if I lose ya'll got to cheer it now I can get you hooked on me like Whitney is hooked on crack
and it's going down like Whitney's career but it's already over now and that's right funny emcee with comedy my punchlines hit you constantly leave bruises so all can see and I might cause ya agony but I won't cause ya acne get proactive then you'll see the big difference from you and me is I'm just rapping being me

(Chorus)

I'm east coast

I've been doing this a while
the radio is playing us

(Verse 2)

I ain't Kanye
please don't call me Kanye I don't sound nothing like Kanye shouts to the rapper named Kanye this Pradigy East and I'm a super beast on them beats say my name producers get weak you already know my talent just cease don't say nothing don't say, (yeah) that's right I'm wildin Pradical's know for acting stylish don't know who but I do know what and I'm about to kick yo butt back in the day we used to say that now we got phat dreams of pushing Maybachs if I had money for a Maybach I'd get a chauffeur to drive my whip I'd get a mink towel to whip my whip I'd get Mr. Clean to clean my whip I'd get two dimes to wrestle in a pit and I'd tell 'em winner get to ride in the whip oooh, I'm so scandalous do you really think you can handle this got beats, got flows, got looks, got doe got everthing thing else you can ask for

(Chorus)

gotta bring it back down south though (yea)
and I've been doing this a while
the radio is playing us
I've been doing this a while
the radio is playing us

you just got to bump it
and you just got to you just got to you just got to bump it ohh!
